FATHER

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1914
MR. JAMES TOHILL. P. 2

It is our duty to record, with regret, the passing hence of still another stoutheart of the district in the person of Mr. James Anthony Tohill, of Campaspe, in the Mt. Pleasant farming areas. For forty years a resident of the district, and a most successful farmer, the late Mr. Tohill hailed from County Antrim, Ireland, where he first saw the light of day in 1835. Fifty years ago he arrived in Melbourne, where he joined the police force, having previously been a member of the Irish Constabulary in Belfast. Having caught the gold-fever, Mr. Tohill resigned his position, and went to New Zealand in quest of fortune. But Fortune proved elusive, as ever, and our friend subsequently delved in Queensland, New South Wales, ~~and Victoria at Bendigo.~~ Then he was another of our pioneers, and he farmed at Charlotte Plains. Then the call of the plough found him settled at Campaspe, over 40 years ago, on a snug holding of 320 acres. A little later he took to himself a wife — marrying Miss Bridget Green, at Bendigo. The ceremony was performed in St. Kilian's Chapel, by the late Dr. Backhaus. As a farmer, the late Mr. Tohill was very successful. Of late years he had just taken things easy on the farm. He was in his usual health on Monday morning. After lunch he went to his room to take his usual afternoon nap. When his wife went to call him later she his wife went to call him later she found that her help-mate had passed away in his sleep—worn out with years, yet peacefully reclining in the arms of Death. The old gentleman had never complained of being unwell, and his sudden demise came as a great shock to his friends and relatives, for whom much sympathy is felt. In his prime the late Mr. Tohill was a fine stamp of a man—being over six feet in stature. He was highly esteemed far and wide for his manly and kindly attributes. Besides the widow, Messrs James Tohill, of New Zealand; John and Frank, of Melbourne; and Mrs. John Carmody, of Sydney, and Mrs. Mat Ryan, of Wanalta, are left to mourn the loss of a kindly husband and father. The funeral to the Runnymede Cemetery took place on Wednesday, when a large gathering of mourners were present, over 60 vehicles joining in the cortege. The Rev. Father Ryan, of Elmore, officiated at the graveside. Messrs. J., W., T., M., and W. Green (brothers of Mrs. Tohill) and Mr. J. Burke, acted as pall-bearers, and Messrs. Fizzle and Mulqueen attended to the mortuary arrangements.
